A-Tisket, A-Tasket

A-tisket, a-tasket,

A green and yellow basket.

I wrote a letter to my love,

But on the way I dropped it.

A Flea  and a Fly

A Flea  and a Fly

Flew up  in a flue.

Said the Flea,  "Let us fly!"

Said the Fly,  "Let us flee!"

So they flew through a flap in the flue.

Bat,  Bat

Bat,  bat,

Come under my hat

And I'll give you a slice of bacon,

And when I bake,

I'll give you a cake,

If I am not mistaken.

Betty Botter

Betty Botter

bought some butter,

But she said the butter's

bitter.

If I put it in my batter,

It will make my batter

bitter.

But a bit of better butter

Is sure to make my batter better.

So she  bought a bit of butter

Better than her bitter butter ,

And she  put it in her batter

And the batter  was not bitter.

So ‘twas better Betty Botter

Bought a bit of better butter .

Curly locks , Curly locks,

Will you be mine?

You shall not wash dishes,

Nor feed the swine,

But sit on a cushion,

And sew

a fine seam,

And feed upon strawberries,

Sugar

and cream

A swarm of bees  in May,

Is worth a load of hay

A swarm of bees  in June,

Is worth a silver spoon.

A swarm of bees  in July,

Isn't worth a fly

Little Miss Muffet

Eating her curds and whey.

There came a big spider

Who sat down beside her.

And frightened Miss Muffet away!

Old Mother Goose

Old Mother

Goose

When she wanted to wander,

Would ride through the air,

On a very fine gander.

Mother

Goose

had a house

It stood in the wood

Where an owl

at the door

As sentinel stood.

She

had a son, Jack

A plain looking lad

'Twas not very good,

Nor yet very bad.

She

sent him to market.

A live goose

he bought,

"See, Mother?"

he said,

“I have not been for naught.”

Soon grew very fond.

As I have been told,

An egg  of pure gold.

He  ran to his mother,

The news for to tell.

She  called him  a good boy,

And said it was well.

Jack  sold his egg,

To a merchant untrue,
Who cheated him out,
Of half of his due.

Then Jack  went courting,

A lady so gay,

As fair as the lily

As sweet as the May.

The merchant and squire,

Soon came at his back,

And began to belabour,

The sides of poor Jack.

Then old Mother

Goose

That instant came in,

And turned her son Jack

Into famed Harlequin.

She then with her wand,

Touched the lady so fine,

And turned her at once,

Into sweet Columbine.

The gold egg in the sea,

Was thrown away then,

When an odd fish

brought her,

The egg

back again.

The merchant then vowed,

The goose  he would kill,

Resolving at once,

His pockets  to fill.

Jack's  mother  came in,

And caught the goose  soon,

And mounting its back,

Flew up to the moon.

To do what is right.

The croc  winked his eye

As she  bade them all goodbye,

Wearing a happy smile.

At the end of the ride

The lady  was inside,

And the smile

Was on the crocodile!
